

Photographs & Video at PIC

We often take photographs or video for community information and organizational publicity purposes. Collected media may be used to better communicate with families, to illustrate the daily curriculum, to chronicle a child's development, or to document center activities.

Images may appear in (but is not limited to): e-mails or e-newsletters, professional presentations, printed publications, website, social media platforms, and local media. Children are never identified in these images. All external media requests are done at the approval of the Executive Director.

If you choose not to grant permission, it will not affect your child's ability to participate in programs or events.
