

The Parent-Infant Center 2024-2025 Tuition Assistance Application (effective for July 1, 2024-June 30, 2025)

Any family enrolling at The Parent-Infant Center is welcome to apply for our Tuition Assistance support through this Tuition Assistance Application.

The following is important information about Tuition Assistance at PIC.

- Priority is given to families whose income is up to 300% of the federal poverty level (see bottom of this form.)
- Families receiving Child Care Works (CCW) subsidy are typically not eligible for additional tuition assistance through PIC. Please visit the Child Care Works (CCW) to see if you qualify for CCW funding:
<https://www.elrc8.org/>
- Special consideration is also given to families needing temporary assistance because of a short-term family (or other) situation.
- Typical tuition Assistance awards range between $1200 and $2400 per year (between $100 and $200 per month.)
- Applications for Tuition Assistance are not reviewed until a family has confirmed enrollment by paying the full tuition deposit.
- We need to receive the most current household tax return (or equivalent documentation) before we can consider a family’s Tuition Assistance application.
